Let There Be Light (2017 film) - Wikipedia

When God said, "Let there be light," at the creation, and light appeared, it showed God's creative power and absolute control. The physical light that God made on the first day of creation is a wonderful picture of what He does in every heart that trusts in Christ, the True Light .

Why did God say, "Let there be light," during creation ...

There was emptiness, confusion, darkness so He said "Let's recreate." "Let there be light" could mean "let there be brand new creation." In John 9:1-7, there was a man born blind. It was not that his eyes became bad or withered; it was that something was wrong from the very beginning but when the Light of the world shone on him, he got brand new eyes.
