Rather, Christ is really present at the thanksgiving, and in the memory. Zwingli's words that the "true body of Christ is eaten in a sacramental and "spiritual manner" is understood in a way where the physical objects and actions are the spiritual reminder of what Jesus had done, that He has instituted.

Real presence of Christ in the Eucharist - Wikipedia

Christ is in fact present to the believer and to the church in a threefold way, despite the fact that Christ's glorified, molecular body is not present on earth but is now invisible in heaven. Christ is really within the believer by the Holy Spirit, who extends Christ's self and presence into the believer's heart ("Christ in you, the hope of glory" [Col 1:27]);

How Christ Is Present with Us Now in a Threefold Way

Christ is present during the Eucharist in various ways. He is present in the person of the priest who offers the sacrifice of the Mass. According to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council, Christ is present in his Word "since it is he himself who speaks when the holy scriptures are read in the Church."

Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist

To accomplish so great a work, Christ is always present in His Church, especially in her liturgical celebrations. He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, not only in the person of His minister, "the same now offering, through the ministry of priests, who formerly offered himself on the cross" (20), but especially under the eucharistic species.

How Is Jesus Present in the Eucharist?

"This presence is called 'real'—by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present" (CCC, no. 1374, citing Pope Paul VI, Mystery of Faith, no. 39).
